

English Training for Global Success

The English Training for Global Success program is designed for career preparation and professional development. The unique advantage of the course is that it offers a mix of both closely tutored core skills and collaborative project work. The learner outcomes are: a deep understanding of the language, ability to speak with clarity and be understood, ability to write with impact and communicate a message in clear written English, in addition to team-building and project management skills, and cross-cultural collaboration. The program can be supplemented with one-to-one lessons with a personal tutor to focus on exam preparation, English for specific purposes, or any specialized areas.

English for Global Success

The program includes four sessions of key skills for accuracy and performance in the language. Each is taught in a small class of maximum five students.

Architecture of the Language

Accuracy allows the professional to communicate effectively: to be convincing, to be inspiring and to lead from the front.

Clarity of Spoken Interaction

Careful and detailed work to master pronunciation skills allows the learner to be understood and to operate on an equal basis with native speakers in a variety of situations such as debates, negotiations, meetings and presentations.

Writing Effective Professional Communication

Develops cogent phraseology which is needed for effective written communications from emails, letters, summaries to a detailed report. Important for presenting arguments and making an impact and achieving clarity of communication.

Leadership Skills

To present arguments clearly and inspire the audience, whether internal colleagues or external audiences. Collaboration skills for achieving consensus which gives professional relationships the best opportunity to thrive and which encourages high performance.

Start dates: every week of the year

Minimum age: 18